Musical tribute to The Moody Blues

LEGEND of a Band – featuring the music of the Moody Blues performed by legendary musicians, singers and songwriters including the band's drummer for 25 years – will be at Palace Theatre, Southend, on Saturday, January 28, and we have TWO pairs of tickets to give away.

Drummer Gordy Marshall is joined by current 10cc lead singer Mick Wilson; Leona Lewis and Westlife guitarist Tim Maple; James Blunt and Joss Stone bass player Malcolm Moore; flautist/singer/saxophonist/keyboard player, Lindsay Goodhand; Strictly Come Dancing vocalist Patrick Smyth; and musician and songwriter Patrick Duffin, composer of the Loose Women theme tune no less. Experience impeccable performances of classic hits including Nights in White Satin, Go Now, Tuesday Afternoon, Legend of a Mind (Timothy Leary's Dead), I Know You're Out There Somewhere, Question, Isn't Life Strange, plus Justin Hayward's Forever Autumn and a show-stealing rendition of Eve of the War from Jeff Wayne's War of the Worlds.

The evening promises to be an intriguing insight into the kings of the concept album – the Moody Blues – so join them and relive classic, million-selling albums Days of Future Passed, In Search of the Lost Chord, On the Threshold of a Dream, To Our Children's Children and more.

For further information and tickets visit southendtheatres.org.uk or call the box office on 01702 351135.

To win one of two pairs of tickets to see the show at 8pm on Saturday, January 28, answer this question.

Q: The Moody Blues are best known for their hit single:

- A: Nights in White Satin
- B: Nights in White Polyester
- C: Nights in Black Latex

Mick Wilson

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to 0901 307 1669 along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YABAND (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, January 5. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: The winners will be drawn at random. Editor's decision is final and there is no cash alternative.

Campaigns for junior doctors and pro-Brexit lobbies are stepped up

JANUARY TO MAY

THE YEAR began with a couple who married at Langtons Hall, Hornchurch, 50 years' ago renewed their vows at the same location.

Joy and Dennis Shaw, who were one of the first couples to marry at the venue, repeated their commitment to one another in front of around 50 of their friends.

IN FEBRUARY, pupils at a school in Havering learnt how to stay safe online in an e-safety learning week.

Children at Harold Court Primary School had lessons about online safety and even dressed up as their favourite computerised characters or as a piece of technology.

And a matron at Queen's Hospital in Romford raised more than £4,500 for charity by climbing Mount Kilimanjaro.

Mary O'Leary, who works on the hospital's postnatal ward, scaled the 5,895 metre high mountain in Tanzania during late January to raise money for King George and Queen's Hospitals Charity.

AN ANTI-EU group in the borough re-iterated its support, in March, for leaving the union at the referendum.

A panel, including Andrew Rosindell, Conservative MP for Romford and Roger Evans, deputy mayor of London, spoke out in favour of Britain voting to leave the EU at Romford Conservative Association. And staff at Queen's Hospital wore bandanas to raise awareness about brain tumours.

A NEW chief executive was appointed at Havering Council in April.

The appointment of Andrew Blake-Herbert was ratified by the council during a meeting at Havering Town Hall on Wednesday March 30.

Andrew joined the council from Slough Borough Council in September 2009 as a group director of finance and commerce. And residents at a multi million pound housing estate in Rainham were struck by an infestation of rodents.

Cllr Michael Deon Burton said that up to 20 people on the The Orchard Village estate had contacted him about the problem.

MORE THAN 4,000 NHS appointments were delayed at Queen's and King George hospitals as a result of junior doctor strikes, in May.

The industrial action saw a full withdrawal of labour – the first time in the history of the NHS that this has taken place. And students from Havering Sixth Form College took part in a workshop to learn more about issues associated with the EU referendum.

East Ham MP Stephen Timms gave the keynote speech to get secondary school and college students interested in the debates around Brexit.

STRIKE: Junior doctors took industrial action throughout 2016.

ROMANCE: Joy and Dennis Shaw

Flowerbed to mark Queen's 90th birthday

JUNE

It consisted of more than nine different plants including three varieties of alternanthera and two colours of sempervivum.

A STREET party was held at Squirrels Heath Infant School in Salisbury Road, Romford, to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday.

Children took part in maypole dancing, marching, as well as singing birthday songs and the national anthem.

JULY

PARALYMPIC swimmer Amy Marren opened a new gym at Queen's Hospital in Romford.

THE leader of Havering Council spoke out after residents reported that they had been the victims of hate crimes since the UK voted to leave the EU.

AUGUST

HAVERING Council announced a £29million investment in sport and leisure.

New leisure facilities will be established at Hornchurch Sports Centre, Central Park Leisure Centre and Romford Leisure Centre, as well as improvements made to Chafford Sports Complex.

SEPTEMBER

HEALTH clinics could close across east London because of a lack of NHS cash.

Barking, Havering and Redbridge University NHS Trust told Havering Council that clinics for family planning and sexual health will be centralised. An external relations officer for the council said the trust had no choice but to centralise services.

A SERVICE was held at St Andrew's Church on September 11 to commemorate the 76th anniversary of RAF Hornchurch's contribution to the Battle of Britain.

It honoured all RAF personnel who took part, particularly three pilots from Hornchurch buried in the town's war memorial cemetery.

Life in jail for killer

OCTOBER-NOVEMBER

FAMILY members of victims in the public gallery cheered as a serial killer was sentenced to life in prison at the Old Bailey for murdering four gay men and a series of other sexual offences.

Stephen Port, 41, of Cooke Street, Barking, was found guilty on Wednesday, November 23 of murdering Anthony Walgate, 23, of Golders Green, Gabriel Kovari, 22, originally from Slovakia and lived with Port at his Barking address, Jack Taylor, 25, of Dagenham and Daniel Whitworth, 21, of Gravesend, by poisoning them with lethal doses of GHB, a medical anaesthetic.

DECEMBER

MORE than 40 per cent of secondary school pupils in Havering attend schools that require improvement.

Ofsted inspectors described the figure as "disappointing" and revealed the borough's secondary schools are now ranked in the bottom ten per cent of schools, 139 out of 152 authorities across the country.

JUMP: Havering Sports Centre hosted two sports days for schools

YEARS five and six pupils from schools across Havering participated in an athletics competition in Hornchurch.

Ardleigh Green School beat 26 others across a two-day session and will go on to take part in the London School Games.

HEALTHCARE professionals in Havering urged the government to spend more on improving young people's mental health.

Research conducted by The Royal College of Psychiatrists revealed that every taxpayer in Havering will contribute £49.68 this year towards mental health services for young people.

Yellow Advertiser has been published in this area and been a part of the community in Essex and East London for over 40 years.

AN OPPORTUNITY HAS ARISEN TO JOIN OUR BUSY SALES TEAM.

We are looking for really exceptional individuals who can become part of our commercial division.

The successful candidates will have many responsibilities in this varied sales role, giving priority to developing new business by cold calling and building relationships with prospective clients.

To be successful in our business you need to have a flexible approach to work and be prepared to dig in and roll up your sleeves when the going gets a little bit tough!

A proven sales background is preferred but we are looking for highly motivated individuals who are keen to learn and keen to earn. A good command of the English language and good writing skills are most definitely a prerequisite, as are good listening skills.

Benefits: Basic Salary plus tiered bonus structure. 5 weeks holiday per annum. Pension Scheme (after qualifying period).

On-going training.

Three valuable points for Orient after they nearly give away three-goal lead

O'S ALMOST LET IT SLIP

Football

Leyton Orient 3 Crawley Town 2
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient almost threw away a three-goal Boxing Day lead, but held out to grab back-to-back home wins, thanks to Sam Dalby's stunning opener and a Paul McCallum double.

But the west Sussex side ensured a nervous finale after Teddy Mezague's own goal and Enzo Boldewijn's late consolation goal.

The east Londoners got off to a dream start when 17-year old debutant Dalby scored with his first meaningful touch from Nigel Atangana's fourth minute cross, after being released by a clever Gavin Massey pass.

The now rampant hosts extended their lead only eight minutes later when top scorer McCallum beat his marker and nodded home Massey's pin-point cross, from Michael Collins's quick free-kick, giving a flatted-footed Glenn Morris, and former Orient keeper, no chance.

The shot-shy visitors, who didn't manage an on-target effort until James Collins tested Alex Cisak with a 31st minute drive, struggled against an inspired Orient side.

McCallum continued to ask questions of a shaky visiting defence, with several close range headers, including a penalty claim for handball in the second minute of stoppage time against Mark Connolly.

But, in the fifth minute of time added on, McCallum finally got his reward when a poor Jordan Roberts challenge on Massey saw referee, Trevor Kettle finally point to the spot.

The former West Ham man then sent Morris the wrong way with a cool, side-footed strike.

The O's – with a seemingly unsailable lead – had entered almost uncharted territory, given their inconsistent form this season.

But they were rocked eight minutes into the second half when the visitors got a foothold in this contest, after the hapless Mezague deflected home Lewis Young's cross.

Four minutes later McCallum wasted a great chance not only to complete his hat-trick, but – crucially – to restore the O's advantage.

Massey was then unceremoniously bundled over in the box, but Mr Kettle waved play on.

The much-improved Red Devils then had the O's defending for their lives. It took a complete lack of communication between Tom Parkes and his keeper to allow Dutchman Boldewijn to sneak in and tap home eleven minutes from time.

Orient did have chances to avoid another cliffhanger of a finale, including Sandro Semedo's searing run that wasn't matched by a disappointing finish.

But, despite six minutes of stoppage time, the best Crawley could manage was a long range Connolly drive that sailed wide to the relief of an increasingly nervous home crowd.

Orient boss Andy Edwards admitted: "We looked very comfortable at the break and I would have been more than happy with a dour second period and going home with a three-nil win."

"The plan at the back of my mind was if we could get the fourth, then we could go on. But we conceded and gave them a little lifeline. Unfortunately, we then conceded a second. But, we were resilient in holding out."

He added: "The points are obviously huge, as we are trying to get away from the bottom of that table."

Man-of-the-match, Michael Collins, revealed: "The first-half was a testament to the way we applied ourselves off the back of a Christmas Day. You never know what you're going to get, with some of the lads overdoing it on the food."

"That was the story of the first-half as we were 'bang on it' – they probably weren't. But, they must have got a bit of a telling-off at half-time. And, they've come out and had a right go.

"It was a difficult second-half, but we've hung in there and go home with the three points. We're delighted."

Crawley boss Dermot Drummy added: "You can't go to sleep and do the things we did in the first ten minutes. The players weren't doing their jobs. Sometimes, as a coach, it's hard to put your finger on things."

"But, changes were made and in the second half we brought a much stronger mentality on the pitch. But, we gave ourselves a mountain to climb."

Crawley skipper Jimmy Smith, said: "The damage was done in the first twenty minutes. The gaffer changed the system at half-time, and the second half was probably all about us. But, unfortunately, it was too late."

Legendary Orient striker, Peter Kitchen, was hugely relieved to see the O's record back-to-back home Sky Bet League Two victories for the first time this season.

Speaking to Yellow Sport after the match, Kitchen said: "There was a collective sigh of relief from everyone connected to the O's when the final whistle blew."

"Having started so brightly and racing into a three-goal lead, we all believed it was a case of 'game over.' However, the old saying that it's a 'game of two halves' was never more appropriate and when Crawley scored their second 12 minutes from time."

Kitchen continued: "It looked like Orient might blow it, but they held on."

"This was such an important win for the team. It will give them much-needed confidence and belief which could signal the turning point of their season."

"O's are now ideally poised to kick on in the new year."

Orient entertain play-off hopefuls, Cambridge United, on Saturday, with another early, 1pm kick-off, before travelling to Exeter City on Bank Holiday Monday (3pm).

Non-league round-up

Bowers on an unbeaten run

By Brian Jeeves

PROMOTION-chasing Bowers & Pitsea recorded their eighth successive Ryman League Division One North victory after hammering Great Wakering Rovers 5-1 at Burroughs Park.

Ben Sartain grabbed a superb hat-trick, while Lewis Manor finished the job with a brace of his own. Adam Topley responded for the villagers shortly before half-time.

Ryan Charles, Nathan Koranteng, Usman Adeniji and Luke Mallet found the net in the second half for Witham Town as they hit back to see off Brentwood Town 4-1. Andrew Freeman had given the visitors the lead from the penalty spot.

Meanwhile, George Cole's late strike was enough for Heybridge Swifts as they stunned league leaders Maldon & Tiptree by a goal to nil at Scraley Road Stadium.

Adrian Markus, Dan Aristidou (pen) and Chris Benjamin helped Haringey Borough to a 3-1 win over Waltham Abbey. Arian Retkoceri responded for the visitors in the final minute, while Aaron Condon's double wasn't enough to save Brightlingsea Regent from a 3-2 defeat at Dereham Town. Harley Black doing the damage for the hosts with a hat-trick.

Tilbury were also beaten. Reece Hewitt found the net for the Dockers, but strikes from Joseph Bruce and Jamie Guy (2), ensured a 3-1 win for VCD Athletic.

In the Ryman League Premier Division, first half goals from Michael Bakare and Dipo Akinyemeh helped Billericay Town to a 2-1 derby success over Canvey Island. Steve Sheehan responded late on for the struggling Gulls in front of a 571 crowd at Park Lane.

There was an exciting National League derby at Cressing Road where Braintree Town won a five-goal thriller with Dagenham & Redbridge 3-2. Simeon Akinola grabbed two for the Iron, one from the penalty spot, while Michael Cheek added another. Oliver Hawkins and Jordan Maguire-Drew responded for the Daggers.

Chelmsford City recorded their first National League South victory in eight matches with a resounding 4-0 derby success over Bishop's Cleeve at the Melbourne Stadium.

Max Cornhill, Elliott Buchanan, Robbie Willmott and Matt Young found the net for the Clarets in front of a bumper 1,014 crowd, and manager Rod Stringer was quick to acknowledge the part the supporters can play in helping City build a successful platform for the future. He said: "People use the term 'sleeping giant' but the volume of support we are getting just shows you that this club can be vibrant if we can string results together for them and show that there is ambition there."

There was a National South derby at the Aspect Arena where Concord Rangers and East Thurrock United played out an entertaining 1-1 draw.

Jordan Chiedozie fired the home side into the lead 12 minutes from time. Tom Wright grabbed a last-minute leveller for the Rocks with a stunning free-kick.
